

Marabelli (Deed Book 814. p. 563). However, the sellers retained the use of the property for three years (T 7/6/25).

2. Demolition of the greenhouse, headhouse and storage shed was approved by Cabinet on December 31, 1963.

See Addenda Nos. 1, 2

3. The demolition occurred during the winter of 1963-64, according to Floyd Knott, long time resident Of the adjoining house (980).

C. PHOTOGRAPHS

1. In Photoarchives:

X7664

John H. Herrick
June 11, 1973

ADDENDUM NO. 1

Review of additional records found in old Campus Planning files reveals the following additional information:

Alternate Names:

Horticulture Farm Greenhouse

Horticulture Greenhouse on Lisle Road

Kenny Road Greenhouse

Italian Greenhouse

Abandonment:

A June 15, 1969 letter from Paul H. Elleman to John Bragg says the greenhouse was last used during the winter of 1955-56.

Notes made in Campus Planning papers in 1964 say the greenhouse was last used in 1954.

Demolition:

Demolition was approved by the Council on Business Affairs on January 2, 1964. Board of Trustees approval of the demolition was not sought.

John H. Herrick
December 14, 1973

ADDENDUM NO. 2

Assignment 64-4 issued by the Office of Campus Planning on January 6, 1964 authorizing demolition of this building referred to it as the "Horticulture and Forestry Greenhouse." This same assignment authorized demolition of the "attached frame building along with the small frame shed across the driveway to the north of the greenhouse at 2407 Kenny Road "

John H. Herrick
December 12, 1974